

DO YOU BELIEVE IN PICKETS, BOYCOTTS OR BLACKLISTS?

I DO NOT

I believe that UNFAIR Organized Labor should be prohibited by LAW from picketing a man's BUSINESS the same as UNFAIR Organized Capital is prohibited by LAW from BLACKLISTING a man's LABOR.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

A LITTLE FREE ADVERTISING

One of the republican candidates for State Senator is running on a personal platform which we believe calls for a little free advertising. The candidate referred to is Mr. Ernest Hall of Maricopa county who says:

"I am a firm believer in organized labor, when it is conducted along the lines of fair co-operation and unselfishness, but I AM OPPOSED not only to organized labor but to organized capital or to any special interest, which by reason of its organization, tries to build itself up at the EXPENSE AND BY THE DESTRUCTION OF THE BUSINESS, PROPERTY AND LIVELIHOOD OF THE REST OF THE PEOPLE."

Wonderful logic is it not? Any organization that attempts to build itself up by the strength of its organization, Mr. Hall opposes. This is the same Hall who operates a fruit ranch a few miles from Phoenix and who is patronized quite liberally in this respect, in the buying of fruit, by the working people of Phoenix.

Union voters of Maricopa county keep the above "liberal" declaration of Mr. Hall in mind when you cast your vote on election day.—Arizona Labor Journal.

I would ask for no better advertisement of my stand on this question than the above "Free Ad." or any better reason why I should have the support of every man or woman in Maricopa County, who believes in giving every other man, woman or child, be he rich or poor, a SQUARE DEAL, with Special Legislation for NO Class of People or NO Class of Property, but Equal Rights for All and Special Privileges to NONE.

PIONEER PASSES TO GREAT BEYOND

W. A. Deaver, for twenty-eight years a resident of this valley, died at the family residence, 275 North Sixth street, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of several months. Mr. Deaver and his wife, who survives him, came to Phoenix from St. Louis and for many years made their home in the Isaac district, where they occupied a ranch. They moved to the city recently and just a few days ago, on October 27,

Mr. Deaver celebrated his 80th birthday. The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but will be held from the undertaking parlors of Moore and McLellan some time this week.

AGUA FRIA CROSSING IN BAD CONDITION

Motorists are warned to avoid the middle crossing of the Agua Fria. County Engineer Harold Bargman who made the trip yesterday, stated that the crossings at either end are not tacked down and should be avoided for the next few days. Bargman reports the main road to Wickenburg in good condition and that roads generally will be in excellent shape fair week. Considerable work in grading is being done at the present time.

NOT ANNIVERSARY

"I know you were married twenty years ago, yet you have the nerve to tell me this is your seventh wedding anniversary." "I said my seventh wedding, Yordick, not anniversary."—Kansas City Journal.

A HUNDRED DOLLAR BET THAT THE U. S. SHOULD BE AT WAR

"I'll bet a thousand dollars that four months after Hughes is elected, the United States will be at war," this from a man sitting in a barber's chair yesterday afternoon.

Said the neighbor, "I'll bet a thousand dollars that if Wilson is elected, we will be at war in less time than that."

Said still another neighbor, and his remarks were received with laughing approval from everyone present. "Well, I'll bet a hundred dollars that we ought to be at war right now."

The above remarks are to illustrate that practically the sole topic of conversation in Phoenix these days is politics. It seems to be a rather hard matter to find a republican who is not sure that Mr. Hughes is going to be elected, but it is possible to find hundreds of democrats, who admit that their man may be beaten.

Of the three men talking, whose conversation is quoted above, two had been chased out of Mexico. Both were democrats, but they differed in their opinions of Mr. Wilson.

The one who was so anxious to bet a thousand on Hughes plunging the country into war was a Wilson man in spite of the fact that he "lost $75,000 in one chunk, on account of the bandits chasing him out of Mexico." He is not for war, and he admitted that he had never been to war, and never wanted to go, while the other democrat has been to war, and Mexico both.

This same man who thinks we ought to be at war, and has been to what General Sherman called war, was at the battle of San Juan Hill, and is for Roosevelt, first, last and always. He is of the opinion that if Roosevelt was president, there would be no trouble in Mexico now, and he would be enjoying the fruits of his labors below the border at the present hour.

"Why, I want to be an American," he said. "I don't want to have to hide my citizenship when I go below the line. It's all right to say we are not at war, but just the same we are getting and have been getting a pretty good licking a few hundreds of miles from here."

YUMA VALLEY

News of a Day in That Rich Agricultural Empire

Editor Newton of Gadaden, was in the city yesterday.

Joe Probstel came in from Velton to be present at the meeting of the board of supervisors.

Joe Rice, of Phoenix, is in the city. R. C. Smith represented Gadaden in Yuma Tuesday.

Jack E. Vernon of Los Angeles, was in Yuma Tuesday, making his initial trip from the coast city to Phoenix for the purpose of establishing a permanent auto stage route between the two cities.

The demand for Campbell buttons has been so great that many people have been disappointed in not getting one.

A new shipment has been received and if the ladies will call at the republican headquarters on Second street, they will be given a brand new Tom Campbell pin.

Frank Smith and sister, Miss Julia, of Mackay, Idaho, are visiting with their cousin, S. M. Smith of the valley and expect to make this their permanent home.

Two feet of snow on the ground when they left Idaho and the clear warm days in Yuma did the work. Joseph Muehlheim of Somerton has 30 acres planted to cotton and another in kaffir corn. It has been estimated that the cotton will go two bales to the acre. Taking into consideration the fact that this 160 acres has been cleared and leveled since last January it is a remarkable showing.

The candidates of both parties have returned from their canvases of the northern end of the county, both sides claiming victory, but it is noticed that the democratic candidates have little to say about the large number of old time democrats who are wearing Tom Campbell buttons.

At the city primary held Tuesday, there were 772 votes cast, out of a total of 912 registered. The following vote was cast for the different candidates:

Hon. J. B. Wright of Tucson, will lose the republican campaign in Yuma county, at the Yuma theater, Monday evening November 6. In connection with the speaking the Woman's Guild of the Episcopal church will serve a supper and give a candidates ball.

Johnny Wright needs no introduction to the people of Yuma. This was his former home and during his residence here, he served the county as district attorney, making a record in that office that is often referred to by the old timers.

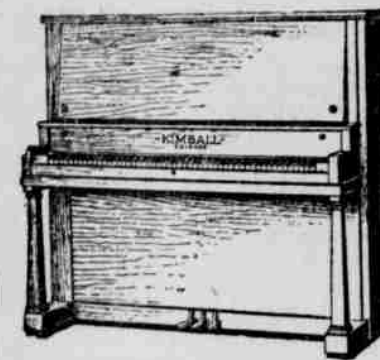

During the past week farmers from the Imperial valley have been here trying to lease land for the purpose of planting cotton. So far a few have succeeded in renting for $20 per acre. Land that has never been under cultivation has been leased for a term of two years, to parties who agree to clear and level the same.

The Monday Musical club gave its initial program at Eagles' hall Monday. The numbers were enthusiastically appreciated by the members of the various clubs of Yuma, who were the guests of the musical club.

A large number was added to the list of associate members of the club. Miss Nora Morrow gave an interesting and instructive paper on the "Frosts." Miss Marie West played "Serenade" by Gounod in a finished manner. Mrs. Ray Priest beautifully sang two numbers by Hathaway. Mrs. Wadsworth of the club and Mrs. Dwyer, playing the violin obligatos. Miss Nellie Rogers gave a finished rendition of

THE PROUD OLD KIMBALL NAME

With new laurels of victories won, and better than ever before, the proud old Kimball name again bows to the music-loving public of Phoenix. It was a happy day at Marvin's when the message from over the wire read: "Kimball Pianos and Players won Grand Prize and Gold Medal Panama-Pacific International Exposition."

But not until just recently were all the diplomas signed by the P. P. I. E. officials and awarded to the manufacturers of the Kimball Piano.

FARMERS' SPECIAL
COMING TO VALLEY

At a meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce yesterday a special committee was appointed to make arrangements for the receiving of the farmer's special to be here on the morning of November 12. The farmer's special comes from the eastern states, and is carrying hundreds of farmers who are the guests of the Santa Fe Colonization department. This is the first time that a stop has been made in the valley. On all other previous trips, the train has gone straight through to the coast.

According to present arrangements, the train will be in town all day. It is planned to take the farmers around the valley in the morning, and then to the state fair in the afternoon.

Those who are contemplating entering exhibits at the state fair are requested not to wait until the last day to fill out the entry blanks. Saturday, November 4, is the last day for entries to be in.

The branch office of the fair commission at the chamber of commerce has been doing a big business, and it is expected that things will be rushed to the limit Saturday. It is earnestly requested that all those who possibly can call there before Saturday, in order that the rush may be alleviated on the last day.

GLENDALE NEWS

Word was received of the death of Miss Annie Heckles at her father's place north of Frogtanks Monday night. It was known that she was seriously ill of typhoid fever and her sister went up Sunday night a week ago, to be at her bedside. This is the first death in a large family of children. Mr. and Mrs. Heckles have raised in Arizona, coming here from Texas in the early days. Most of Annie's life had been spent on the range in the open and the whole family are known for their wonderful endurance. The sympathy of their many friends is with the whole family in their loss. Clarence Ingram returned Tuesday and is glad to be back in Glendale. Mr. Ingram left here some time ago to find a better place to live. After touring all over the southwestern part of the world he says he is satisfied to settle down in Arizona for the rest of his life. The ghost walked over to the club house Monday night in pillow case and sheet, then at 12 o'clock masks were thrown aside and every one knew it was Glendale's younger set.
